

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25, 1850, J. A. M.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS. JEFFERSONVILLE RAILROAD. DAVE JEFFERSONVILLE

Cincinnati, Sept. 25.—Arrived at 12 A. M. Louisville, 2d; Evansville, Indiana, and return to 12 P. M.

New Albany and Saint Albans.

Cincinnati, Sept. 25.—Topeka, and Chicago Express at 12 A. M. Milwaukee, 2d; Green Bay, 3d; Winona, 4th; St. Paul, 5th.

Louisville and Lexington Railroad.

Pittsburgh Train No. 1 at 12 A. M. Passenger Train No. 2 at 12 A. M. Louisville, 3d; Cincinnati, 4th; Indianapolis, 5th; Evansville, 6th; St. Louis, 7th; Memphis, 8th; New Orleans, 9th.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Passenger Train No. 1 at 12 A. M. Passenger Train No. 2 at 12 A. M. Louisville, 3d; Cincinnati, 4th; Indianapolis, 5th; Evansville, 6th; St. Louis, 7th; Memphis, 8th; New Orleans, 9th.

Sept. 25.—There was quite an excitement on the corner of Main and Market streets about one o'clock yesterday. A young man, who had been away a day or two, informing him that unless he applied for some legal suit given to the writer (who has been in the war), he would have to fight. The young man prepared himself for the emergency, and, on meeting his opponent yesterday, he stopped and said, "I am your opponent to-day, but my son, he (the young man) would not be here in two hours." After stopping for about a minute, the young man walked on, without even having been spoken to.

The train for Cincinnati, on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, yesterday morning, when about five miles from that city, ran off the track and blocked up the road. A brakeman had a leg broken, and the passengers who should have reached her at nine o'clock last evening, did not arrive till 11 o'clock. The last were detained in a like manner.

Mr. Ball, of Adams' Express on the Lexington road, and Captain, the mail agent, have thanks for Cincinnati papers of yesterday. Mr. Gandy, of Adams' Express, on the Louisville and Nashville road, has favored us with Nashville papers of yesterday.

THE refined and appreciative taste of Louisville has been exhibited in a marked manner by the large attendance to witness Taylor's new comedy "Admiral Match," which will be repeated on Saturday evening. The light action of the sisters Georgette completes the triumph of the dramatist, and we are confident that the sister Miss Adelais, and Harry of Miss Jay, have never been equalled by any other person on the stage. The audience was delighted with the farce of the sisters Georgette, and their final appearance but one in the city, and with the last scene but one in the theater.

Boards.—Two or three very pleasant family rooms may be obtained by applying to Mrs. Churchill, No. 10 Centre street, between Jefferson and Green, in the three story building, opposite the First Presbyterian Church. These rooms are all privately arranged, and are being entirely about the house, and we will warrant that the most fastidious taste will be satisfied.

Boards.—Three or four very pleasant family rooms may be obtained by applying to Mrs. Churchill, No. 10 Centre street, between Jefferson and Green, in the three story building, opposite the First Presbyterian Church. These rooms are all privately arranged, and are being entirely about the house, and we will warrant that the most fastidious taste will be satisfied.

ADVERTISING IN INDIANA.—Mr. H. F. Johnson, who is connected with the Owen County (Ind.) Journal, is now in this city and will present to our merchants the advantages of advertising in that paper. The Journal is well conducted and largely circulated, and it will receive manifold remuneration for its outlay.

YELLOW FEVER AT KEY WEST.—A communication in the Key of the Gulf acknowledges the existence of yellow fever in the hospital at that place. Of the nine cases of fever received into the hospital were yellow fever. The cases were imported from Cuba.

IN another column will be found the annual report of the Louisville Protestant Episcopal Orphan Asylum.

EXPOSURE OF A LOCOMOTIVE.—On Monday evening a locomotive attached to a train of cars of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad exploded at West Wheeling, killing the conductor, Winters, the eng'r., John Harris, and the fireman, John. Seven others were seriously injured. The engine and car were entirely demolished, hardly two planks or boards remaining together, while pieces of the boiler were thrown to the distance of nearly half a mile.

INDIANA STATE FAIR.—"Beautiful and rare flowers" for sale at auction. First Fair. The sales will be made on the 26th instant, on the above, belonging to Wm. Haier, the eminent Cincinnatian Florist, will be sold at auction, at two o'clock to day. All levees of the beautiful art. Nothing handsomer of the kind was ever seen.

AT THE ST. LOUIS FAIR, on Tuesday, a Louisvillean named Wilkes or Wilkiss, lost his gold chronometer and $200, a Mr. Strain, of Memphis, lost $800, and a Miss Timberlane lost a valuable diamond bracelet.

A young man, named George, of New Albany, Ky., had his pocket, a watch, a chain, and a diamond ring taken from him on Tuesday morning of his wallet which contained $2,000.

RICOHANT accounts for the Pike's Peak gold mines are very favorable. A dead bolt was found on one of the diggings on the Colorado between E. Warren of Indiana, and G. W. Harrison, of Virginia, and was believed to be dead at Dior on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann, a wholesale grocer at St. Louis, was killed on Monday evening by being pressed between two of the city railway cars.

EXHIBITION OF THE MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—As the winter last evening was fair, the attendants of the Fair were fair. The interest all seems as great as ever, and the receipts are good. We have no doubt that the winter will be enough after paying those large necessary expenses, to do something towards building a permanent Hall, suitable for the purpose of the Institute. Our city, it seems to us, is large enough to afford a building for such a purpose, and we hope an effort will be made to secure it.

We must not fail to mention a very beautiful chandelier exhibited at the Fair, and a specimen of wrought iron work made by Miss Harriet Bascom. They are both excellent specimens of the western Agricultural Association, but we regret to say that the house of "Mrs. Buckley," a mistress who we hereby respectfully correct, these articles, as far as our judgment goes, are not excelled in beauty or execution.

AN ANALYSIS OF PIKE'S PEAK GOLD MADE AT THE PHILADELPHIA FAIR proved to be worth only $15 per ounce gross weight.

We see by a correspondence published in the Doctor (Alta) Times, that Lieut. J. M. Maury has an invitation to deliver an annual address before the North Arkansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at De Soto on the 15th of October next.

CHARLES Kuhlmann

